

Fluid Containment Leaders

Crack Injection

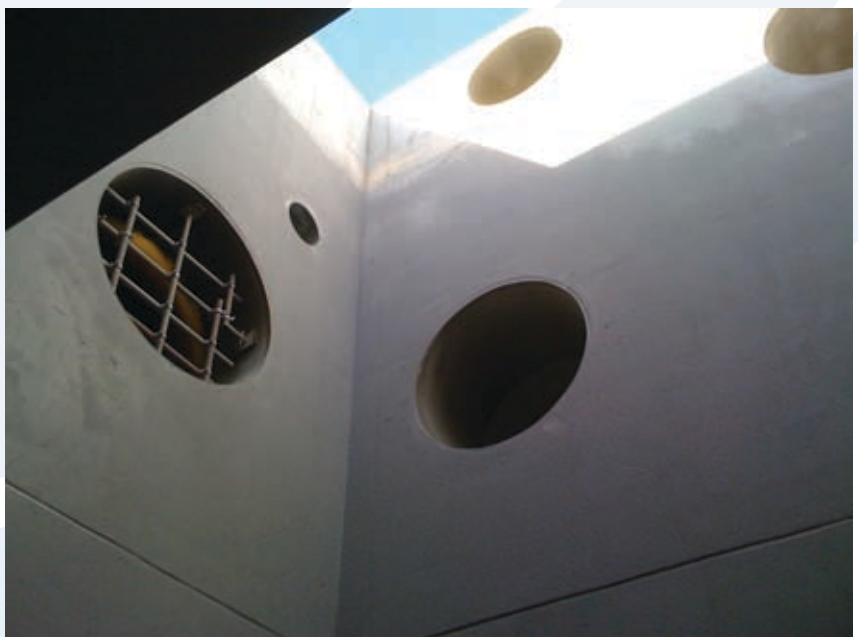

Details of field of expertise of Shield Technology:

Crack Injection for Leak Sealing of Cracks in Concrete Walls, Joints & Floor Slabs

Shield Technology provides leak sealing services for cracks and voids using high pressure crack injection, and slow release epoxy resin injection where structural crack solutions are required.

Holes are drilled at predetermined spaces, accessing the crack deep inside the substrate. Polyurethane resin is pumped in and foams on contact with water, to seal flows in both directions.

Products

Details of field of expertise of Shield Technology:

Crack Injection for Leak Sealing

